

NORTH EAST MEDICAL SERVICES

東北醫療中心

San Jose Clinic Opening in December 2008

North East Medical Services (NEMS) is a non-profit community health center serving the San Francisco Bay Area for over 35 years. We are one of the largest health centers serving Asians in the United States. Our mission is to provide affordable, comprehensive, compassionate and quality health care services to our patients.

We accept many public insurance programs, including Medi-Cal, and provide sliding fee discounts to uninsured and other eligible patients. Our doctors and staff speak Vietnamese, Cantonese, Mandarin and English.
